Harvard University is a center of intellectual activity, research, knowledge creation, learning and teaching. In this environment, results matter and creativity flourishes.

For many people, a compelling aspect of working at Harvard is the sense of mission that permeates every organization on campus. At the same time, Harvard recognizes that compensation is a critical part of your employment experience. The breadth and depth of the total compensation package sets the University apart.

WHAT IS TOTAL COMPENSATION AT HARVARD?

Excellent performance is rewarded in many ways. Compensation includes our performance-based merit increase program, spot and bonus awards, and promotional and professional development opportunities. When combined with Harvard’s comprehensive benefits, unique resources, and global standing, we offer one of the most outstanding total compensation packages in higher education and the nonprofit sector.
COMPENSATION AND INCOME PROTECTION to build financial security now and for the future

COMPENSATION
Compensation at Harvard is determined with careful attention to internal equity and the external market, including higher education and general industry. We do this for each of the job functions in which our staff work and contribute so vitally to Harvard’s success. In this way, we provide competitive market-driven salaries that are fairly administered across the University and to all our employees.

INCOME PROTECTION
Harvard offers a range of benefits to help you protect your income and financial assets.

Short Term Disability (STD)
Provided by Harvard at no cost, the STD program provides up to 26 weeks of coverage at 75%–100% of pay for eligible staff who are unable to perform job duties due to injury or illness. STD covers eight weeks of paid maternity leave for birth mothers.

Long Term Disability (LTD)
This optional, contributory program pays 60% of your pre-disability salary tax free ($15,000/month maximum), if you are unable to work for more than 180 days due to an illness or injury, thus helping you to meet your financial commitments in a time of need. Eligibility for medical, dental, vision and life insurance through Harvard continues, and you continue to accrue service and receive retirement contributions.

Life Insurance
Harvard pays the full cost of basic life insurance equal to one-half of your base salary, including an accelerated life insurance benefit, as well as business travel insurance, to help your beneficiaries pay expenses if you become terminally ill or die. Additional coverage of up to 5x annual salary as well as life insurance for spouses/domestic partners and dependent children may be purchased at favorable rates.

REIRETMENT
In addition to Harvard’s contribution to Social Security on your behalf, generous benefits and financial education opportunities help you build long-term savings and a source of income after you retire.

Defined Contribution Plan
(2001 Staff Retirement Program)
The full cost of the Plan is paid by Harvard. Participants are vested after three years of service. Each month, the University contributes a percentage of eligible pay based on age and earnings:

- For those under age 40, the University contributes an amount equal to 5% of eligible pay below the Social Security wage base ($128,400 in 2018) and 10% above the wage base.
- For those age 40 and over, the University contributes an amount equal to 10% of eligible pay below the Social Security wage base and 15% of above the wage base.

403(b) Tax-Deferred Account (TDA)
You can supplement your Harvard retirement plan by contributing a portion of your eligible pay to a voluntary TDA on either a pre-tax basis (“Traditional option”) or after-taxes with the Roth option. New administrative and professional staff are automatically enrolled in a TDA with the Traditional option after 60 days of employment (with the ability to change or cancel) and will receive program details by mail from the Harvard University Retirement Center (HURC).

457(b) Deferred Compensation Plan
Those who earn a base salary of $200,000 or more may set aside additional money in this plan. Eligible staff will receive information from the HURC.

Post Retirement Health Coverage
At the time of retirement, Harvard provides a choice of retiree medical plan options as well as dental coverage for eligible staff and their spouses/registered domestic partners. You must meet certain age and service requirements to be eligible.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS
to keep you and your family strong and healthy

Supporting the health and wellness of our staff and their families through access to top quality medical care is a long-standing priority at Harvard.

The University actively evaluates its health plan choices to ensure they continue to offer access to the best health care at rates that remain affordable. Medical premiums are tiered based on salary.

HEALTH
Quality and affordability are the hallmarks of Harvard’s broad and comprehensive health benefits. Harvard’s health providers offer extensive networks, including the region’s award-winning hospitals.

Medical
The University offers highly-subsidized medical coverage from top-rated provider Harvard Pilgrim Health Care and the University’s own Harvard University Group Health Plan. Employees may choose between individual or family coverage from two HMO plans, four POS plans (2 traditional and 2 POS Plus), or two high-deductible health plans (HDHP). HDHP members may enroll in a pretax health savings account (HSA) to cover out-of-pocket costs.

Dental
Delta Dental, Harvard’s dental care provider, offers in-network and out-of-network coverage. Over 97% of Massachusetts dentists participate. The plan provides full coverage for preventive care and substantial coverage for other dental services including orthodontia for covered dependents under age 19.

Health Flexible Spending Account (FSA)
FSAs offer tax savings by allowing you to set aside money on a pretax basis (up to $2,650/year) to pay for out-of-pocket health expenses. Eligible expenses can include prescription and office visit copayments, deductibles and coinsurance, dental and vision costs. Limited Purpose FSA is available for HDHP members.

Reimbursement Program
A unique reimbursement program is one more way Harvard works to help eligible staff (those earning under $100,000 (FTE) annually) manage the financial impact of illness or medical care. Out-of-pocket expenses for in-network care received in our HMO and POS plans that exceed annual thresholds may qualify for non-taxable reimbursement.

Vision Care
Comprehensive care through Davis Vision covers vision exams and products at greatly reduced or discounted rates.

Domestic Partnership
Same-sex or opposite-sex domestic partners may be eligible for coverage under your medical, dental and vision plans.

WELLNESS
Harvard recognizes the importance of health and wellness for you and your family and offers programs and classes at little or no cost.
