Subject: Required Notification – Massachusetts Paid Family and Medical Leave Notice

Dear Colleague:

We are pleased to share news of an exciting new benefit that will soon be available. Beginning in 2021, Harvard University will offer all eligible employees paid family and medical leave. Harvard’s new paid family and medical leave benefits, which are modelled on the Massachusetts Paid Family and Medical Leave Law, are designed to enhance the many family-friendly and medical leave benefits that Harvard currently offers its employees.

The details of these new benefits – which supplement the benefits employees already receive – are outlined below along with an important notification from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts concerning the Paid Family and Medical Leave Law.

Harvard’s New Paid Family and Medical Leave Benefits

All eligible employees will receive the following paid family and medical leave benefits consistent with the University’s Paid Family and Medical Leave Law Policy:

Paid Medical Leave: Beginning January 1, 2021, employees may take up to 20 weeks of paid Medical Leave in a benefit year due to the employee’s own serious health condition that incapacitates the employee from performing the essential functions of the employee’s job.

Paid Family Leave: Employees may take paid Family Leave for the following reasons:

1. Beginning January 1, 2021, employees may take up to 12 weeks of paid Family Leave to bond with a child during the first 12 months after the child’s birth, adoption, or foster placement.
2. Beginning January 1, 2021, employees may take up to 26 weeks of paid Family Leave to provide care to a family member who is a covered service member.
3. Beginning January 1, 2021, employees may take up to 12 weeks of paid Family Leave because of any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that a family member is on active duty or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty in the Armed Forces. Qualifying exigencies include such things as providing for the care or other needs of the military member’s child or other family members, making financial or legal arrangements, attending counseling, military events or ceremonies, spending time with the military member during a rest and recuperation leave or following return from deployment, or making arrangements following the death of the military member.
4. Beginning July 1, 2021, employees may take up to 12 weeks of paid Family Leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition.

You are required to acknowledge or refuse to acknowledge that you have received this cover letter and notification. To acknowledge or refuse to acknowledge, go to PeopleSoft Self Service, select My Preferences & Agreements > MA Paid Family & Medical Leave within 30 days of your hire date.

If you do not have access to a computer, you can complete the acknowledgement section at the end of this notice and return it to your HR Contact within 30 days of your hire date. Keep a copy of the signed notice for your records. If you refuse to acknowledge receipt, you may write your refusal to acknowledge on the notice.
Total Leave: Employees may take up to a maximum of 26 weeks, in the aggregate, of paid leave per benefit year for the purposes listed above.

Interplay with Other Types of Leave or Approved Time Off: If an employee takes leave that is associated with a qualifying reason under this policy and is also eligible for leave or approved time off under any other Harvard policy or collective bargaining agreement (including but not limited to Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), parental leave, short and long term disability, vacation time, sick time, personal time, PTO, or any other type of approved absence from work), such absence shall run concurrently with leave under this policy, regardless of whether the employee applies for benefits under this policy.

Weekly Wage Replacement Benefit: An employee who takes paid leave pursuant to these new benefits will receive at minimum the weekly wage replacement benefit prescribed by the Massachusetts Paid Family and Medical Leave Law (up to $850/week). More information about such minimum benefits may be found here: https://www.mass.gov/info-details/estimate-your-available-paid-family-and-medical-leave-benefits.

Supplemental benefits: Employees may be eligible to receive additional wage replacement benefits under other Harvard policies and benefit programs and collective bargaining agreements. In such cases, the employee will receive the greater of the various benefits that are available for the covered reasons. In no case may the total payment received by the employee exceed the compensation that the employee would have received if they had been working.

Harvard has been approved by the Massachusetts Department of Family and Medical Leave to provide these benefits directly to its employees through its own “private plan” (rather than requiring its employees to also go to the Commonwealth to seek approval and payment for such leaves, like many other employers).

Eligibility
To be an “eligible employee” you must be a covered employee who is not exempted by the Massachusetts Family and Medical Leave Law, M.G.L. c. 175M.

Covered Employees: Covered employees are all employees – including full-time, part-time, on call, per diem, temporary, and seasonal employees – who perform services within Massachusetts and are not exempted under the Massachusetts Family and Medical Leave Law, M.G.L. c. 175M. These benefits also apply to such employees for twenty-six (26) weeks after separation or until re-employed, whichever comes first.

Exemptions: These benefits do not apply to: (a) existing or former employees who do not perform services within Massachusetts, (b) independent contractors, (c) exempt student workers, (d) H-2A visa holders, or (e) any other categories of workers who are exempted under the Massachusetts Family and Medical Leave Law, M.G.L. c. 175M.

Rights and Obligations under the Massachusetts Paid Family and Medical Leave Law
There are other aspects of our paid family and medical leave benefits – and the Massachusetts Paid Family and Medical Leave Law – that are too numerous to list in this cover letter. Therefore, we encourage you to read the enclosed “Rights and Obligations under the Massachusetts Family and Medical Leave Law” Notification (“Notification”) provided by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

To view the Notification in an alternate language visit https://hr.harvard.edu/ma-pfml. When finished, we ask you to acknowledge or refuse to acknowledge that you have received this cover letter and notification by completing the acknowledgement section at the end of the notice. If you refuse to acknowledge receipt, you may write your refusal to acknowledge on the notice and sign the form. You must return the signed notice to your HR Contact within 30 days of your hire date. Keep a copy of the signed notice for your records.
