RETIREE HEALTH PLANS

Harvard provides medical and dental coverage to eligible retirees, their spouses/domestic partners (at the time of retirement) and their eligible dependents. These plans are optional; for retirees age 65 and older they supplement Medicare.

PLAN OPTIONS

If you meet the eligibility requirements for post-retirement health, you, your eligible spouse/domestic partner at the time of your retirement, and your eligible dependents have a choice of plans, depending upon age.

Age 65 and Over

Retirees and eligible spouses/domestic partners, and eligible dependents, if any, age 65 and over may choose from one of the following plans that supplement government-provided Medicare:

• Blue Cross Blue Shield (BCBS) of Massachusetts Medex — 800-882-1093
• Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Medicare Enhance — 877-679-5667
• Tufts Health Plan Medicare Preferred HMO (Tufts HMO service area) — 800-246-2400
• Kaiser Permanente (Washington, D.C., Maryland, or Virginia) — 855-249-5018 (available only to retirees of Dumbarton Oaks and CHS living in Washington, D.C., Maryland, or Virginia)

Under Age 65

Retirees and eligible spouses/domestic partners and eligible dependents, if any, under age 65 may choose from plans offered to active employees.

• Retiree faculty and nonunion staff under age 65 are covered under the same plans as active faculty and nonunion staff.
• Retirees under age 65 who were members of ATC, HUPA, HUSPMGU, Local 26 or SEIU, and retired prior to 9/4/14, are eligible for the same plans as active faculty and nonunion staff; those who retired on or after 9/4/14 are eligible for the same plans as active members of their union.
• Retirees under age 65 who were members of HUCTW and retired prior to 7/5/11 are eligible for the same plans as active faculty and nonunion staff; those who retired on or after 7/5/11 are eligible for the same plans as active members of their union.

RATES

See the Health Plan Rates & Features page for costs and plan comparison charts.

ELIGIBILITY AND COST-SHARING

Eligibility for Faculty, Administrative/Professional Staff and Nonunion Staff

Your eligibility for Harvard’s post-retirement health coverage depends on when you began working at the University and your employee group. Your participation service is used in determining your eligibility for post-retirement health benefits. You are eligible for Harvard’s retiree health coverage if you meet all of these requirements:

Hired before January 1, 2014

• You are at least age 55* and have at least 10 years of participation service and:
Your age plus years of participation service with the University total at least 75, and you began working at Harvard before January 1, 2014 and have been continuously employed since then.

*If you have been continuously employed at Harvard since before January 1, 1986, you do not need to meet the age 55 minimum as long as your age plus service equals at least 75. If you meet the applicable eligibility requirements, your spouse or domestic partner at the time of your retirement from Harvard is also eligible for retiree health benefits. If you marry or register a domestic partnership after you leave Harvard, your new spouse/partner is not eligible.

Hired on or after January 1, 2014

- You are at least age 60 and have at least 15 years of participation service and;
- Your age plus years of participation service with the University total at least 75, and
- Your University start date or rehire date is on or after January 1, 2014.

If you meet the applicable eligibility requirements, your spouse or domestic partner at the time of your retirement from Harvard is also eligible for retiree health benefits. If you marry or register a domestic partnership after you leave Harvard, your new spouse/partner is not eligible.

Cost-Sharing for Faculty, Administrative/Professional Staff and Nonunion Staff

Harvard’s subsidy for post-retirement health depends on when you retire, when you become eligible for this benefit and your employee group.

Retired before January 1, 1996 (Age 65 and over)

Harvard pays 100% of the monthly premium for your and your eligible spouse/domestic partner’s medical plan.

Retired on or after January 1, 1996 (Age 65 and over)

The University contributes a percentage of the group Medex rate (cost for that year) and applies that dollar amount to the plan you choose. The University’s contribution percentage is based on your years of participation service, with the subsidy rate as follows:

- Retirement eligible by December 31, 2018: If you meet the eligibility requirements for post-retirement health by December 31, 2018 and have no breaks in service after December 31, 2013, the University contributes from 50% to 80% of the cost of Medex toward your and your eligible spouse/domestic partner’s coverage. (If you have a break in service on or after January 1, 2014, please refer to page 4.) You will receive the maximum subsidy if you retire with at least 20 years of service. Note that the same dollar amount is applied to each plan, so if you choose a plan that is less expensive than Medex, the University’s subsidy will comprise a larger percentage of the cost.

- Retirement eligible between January 1, 2019 and December 31, 2023: If you meet the eligibility requirement for post-retirement health between January 1, 2019 and December 31, 2023 and have no breaks in service after December 31, 2013, the University will contribute from 40% to 70% of the cost of Medex toward your and your eligible spouse/domestic partner’s coverage. (If you have a break in service on or after January 1, 2014, please refer to page 4.) You will receive the maximum subsidy if you retire with at least 20 years of service.

- Retirement eligible after 2024: If you meet the eligibility requirement for post-retirement health after January 1, 2024 and have no breaks in service after December 31, 2013, the University will contribute from 40% to 70% of the cost of Medex toward your and your eligible spouse/domestic partner’s coverage. (If you have a break in service on or after January 1, 2014, please refer to page 4.) You will receive the maximum subsidy if you retire with at least 30 years of service.

Retirees under age 65

Retirees and eligible spouses/domestic partners under age 65 may choose from the plans offered to active employees. If you were continuously employed prior to January 1, 2014, you will pay the same rate as active employees. If you were hired or rehired after January 1, 2014, Harvard contributes 40-70% of the premium rates which are calculated separately based on the usage/experience of those enrolled (retirees and their dependents).
Eligibility for Staff Covered by a Bargaining Unit

You are eligible for Harvard’s retiree health coverage if you meet all of the requirements below. If you meet these requirements, your spouse or domestic partner at the time of your retirement from Harvard is also eligible for retiree medical benefits. If you marry or register a domestic partnership after you leave Harvard, your new spouse/partner is not eligible.

ATC, HUCTW, HUPA, HUSPMGU, Local 26, SEIU Custodian members hired before January 1, 2016 and SEIU Arboretum members hired before January 1, 2020

- You are at least age 55* and have at least 10 years of participation service and
- Your age plus years of participation service with the University equal at least 75.

*If you have been continuously employed at Harvard since before January 1, 1986, you do not need to meet the age 55 minimum, as long as your age plus service equal at least 75.

ATC, HUCTW, HUPA, HUSPMGU, Local 26, SEIU Custodian members hired on or after January 1, 2016 and SEIU Arboretum members hired on or after January 1, 2020

- You are at least age 60 and have at least 15 years of participation service and
- Your age plus years of participation service with the University equal at least 75 and

Cost-Sharing for Staff Covered by a Bargaining Unit

Harvard’s subsidy for post-retirement health depends on when you retire, when you become eligible for this benefit and your employee group.

Retired before January 1, 1996 (Age 65 and over)

Harvard pays 100% of the monthly premium for your and your eligible spouse/domestic partner’s medical plan.

Retired on or after January 1, 1996 (Age 65 and over)

The University contributes a percentage of the group Medex rate (cost for that year) and applies that dollar amount to the plan you choose. The University’s contribution percentage is based on your years of participation service, with the subsidy rate as follows:

- Retirement eligible by December 31, 2019 (December 31, 2024 for SEIU Arboretum): If you meet the eligibility requirements for post-retirement health by December 31, 2020 (December 31, 2024 for SEIU Arboretum) and have no breaks in service after December 31, 2015 (December 31, 2019 for SEIU Arboretum), the University contributes from 50% to 80% of the cost of Medex toward your and your eligible spouse/domestic partner’s coverage. (If you have a break in service on or after January 1, 2016 (January 1, 2019 for SEIU Arboretum), please refer to page 4.) You will receive the maximum subsidy if you retire with at least 20 years of service. Note that the same dollar amount is applied to each plan, so if you choose a plan that is less expensive than Medex, the University’s subsidy will comprise a larger percentage of the cost.

- Retirement eligible between January 1, 2021 and December 31, 2025 (between January 1, 2025 and December 31, 2030 for SEIU Arboretum): If you meet the eligibility requirement for post-retirement health between January 1, 2021 and December 31, 2025 (between January 1, 2025 and December 31, 2030 for SEIU Arboretum) and have no breaks in service after December 31, 2015 (December 31, 2019 for SEIU Arboretum), the University will contribute from 40% to 70% of the cost of Medex toward your and your eligible spouse/domestic partner’s coverage. (If you have a break in service on or after January 1, 2016 (January 1, 2019 for SEIU Arboretum), please refer to page 4.) You will receive the maximum subsidy if you retire with at least 20 years of service.

- Retirement eligible after 2026 (January 1, 2031 for SEIU Arboretum): If you meet the eligibility requirement for post-retirement health on or after January 1, 2026 (January 1, 2031 for SEIU Arboretum) and have no breaks in service after December 31, 2015 (December 31, 2019 for SEIU Arboretum), the University will contribute from 40% to 70% of the cost of Medex toward your and your eligible spouse/domestic partner’s coverage. (If you have a break in service on or after January 1, 2016 (January 1, 2019 for SEIU Arboretum), please refer to page 4.) You will receive the maximum subsidy if you retire with at least 30 years of service.

Retirees under age 65

Retirees and eligible spouses/domestic partners under age 65 may choose from the plans offered to active employees. If you were continuously employed prior to January 1, 2016 (January 1, 2019 for SEIU Arboretum), you will pay the same rate as active employees. If you were hired or rehired on or after January 1, 2016 (January 1, 2020 for SEIU Arboretum), Harvard contributes 40-70% of the premium rates which are calculated separately based on the usage/experience of those enrolled (retirees and their dependents).

Important note for faculty, administrative/professional staff and non-union support staff who leave and are rehired on or after January 1, 2014 and ATC, HUCTW, HUPA, HUSPMGU, Local 26, SEIU Custodian members who leave and are rehired on or after January 1, 2016 and SEIU Arboretum members who leave and are rehired on or after January 1, 2020

Faculty and non-union staff who leave Harvard before attaining post-retirement health eligibility and subsequently