

Harvard University Reimbursement Program (RP) FAQ

What is the Reimbursement Program?

Harvard University provides a unique reimbursement program to assist employees who face high medical costs enroll in this coverage. If you are eligible, once you meet the thresholds described below, you may be reimbursed for covered medical costs.

Who is eligible for the Reimbursement Program?

You must be an active faculty or non-union staff member, have an annual FTE* salary of less than $110,000, and be enrolled in one of Harvard University's Medical Plans, other than a High Deductible Health Plan.

How does this benefit work?

A certain threshold in Qualifying Reimbursement Expenses must be met before reimbursement will be made. The threshold is determined by your FTE* salary and whether you have individual or family coverage in a Harvard medical plan and, if enrolled in a family plan, whether you submit receipts for one family member or multiple family members:

REIMBURSEMENT PROGRAM THRESHOLDS

My Full Time Equivalent (FTE)* Salary Is:	My Reimbursement Program Threshold Is:
	In-Network out-of-pocket expenses including deductible, co-insurance, emergency room copayments, office Visit copayments, and prescription drug copayments
	Individual coverage; or family coverage and submitting receipts for one family member only for the plan year	Family coverage and submitting receipts for more than one family member at any point throughout the plan year
Less Than $30,000	$600	$600
$30,000 - $39,999	$800	$900
$40,000 - $49,999	$900	$1,200
$50,000 - $59,999	$900	$1,600
$60,000 - $69,999	$900	$1,900
$70,000 - $79,999	$1,250	$2,300
$80,000 - $89,999	$1,250	$2,800
$90,000 - $99,999	$1,500	$3,300
$100,000 - $109,999	$1,500	$4,000

*FTE salary is your annual salary if you work full-time. If you work less than full-time, your FTE is the salary you would earn if you worked full-time at your same rate of pay. Thresholds are based on your FTE at the time you submit for reimbursement, not your FTE salary at the time expenses are incurred.

** If you submit receipts for more than one family member, you will be reimbursed for any expenses incurred above the family threshold. If you initially submit receipts for one family member and receive reimbursement for expenses above the individual threshold, but subsequently submit receipts for another family member, you will not receive additional reimbursements for any family member until the family threshold is met.

What are Qualifying Reimbursement Expenses?

The Reimbursement Program reimburses medical out-of-pocket in-network expenses including deductible, co-insurance, ER copayments, office visit copayments and prescription drug copayments. (Out-of-network costs are not eligible.) For an expense to be eligible, you must meet the participant eligibility criteria at the point the expense is incurred and at the point the request for reimbursement is received for processing.

Who administers the Harvard University Reimbursement Program?

Benefit Strategies, LLC is Harvard's administrator for this benefit.

How do I submit for reimbursement?

If you are enrolled in an individual plan, once you have incurred expenses sufficient to meet your threshold amount, submit detailed and legible receipts with a completed RP Reimbursement Request Form to Benefit Strategies. Benefit Strategies will first apply expenses towards your threshold. Your threshold is based on your FTE salary at the time you submit for reimbursement. Amounts submitted above the threshold will be reimbursed to you. As you continue to incur Qualifying Reimbursement Expenses, you may submit for reimbursement in the same manner.

If you are enrolled in a family plan, you have two options:

- If you have one family member who meets the individual threshold, you can submit receipts for that one family member and be reimbursed any of that family member's eligible expenses above the individual threshold. Please note, you cannot submit receipts for any other family member(s) for the remainder of the plan year. If you do, you will not receive any additional reimbursements for any family member(s) until you meet the family threshold, at which point you will be reimbursed any eligible expenses above the family threshold.
- If you do not have one family member whose expenses meet the individual threshold, but you have multiple family members who combined meet the family threshold, you can submit receipts for those family members and be reimbursed for any eligible expenses above the family threshold.

What is Supporting Documentation/Detailed Receipt?

Detailed, legible receipts from in-network medical providers and pharmacy and mail-order pharmacy providers are considered Supporting Documentation. Cancelled checks and credit card receipts by themselves are not acceptable.

How do I obtain a RP Reimbursement Request Form?

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Claims for Qualifying Reimbursement Program expenses incurred during the plan year (January 1 – December 31) MUST BE POSTMARKED by March 31 of the following year.

PLEASE NOTE: Nothing in this section of the form is intended to supersede or replace the provisions of the Harvard University Medical Reimbursement Plan (the “Plan”). If there is a conflict between this section of the form and the Plan, the Plan will control.

Eligibility You must be an active faculty or non-union staff member, have an annual FTE salary* of less than $110,000, and be enrolled in one of Harvard’s HMO or POS medical plans. Participants of one of the High Deductible Health Plans are not eligible for this program. You can be reimbursed for eligible expenses incurred within the plan year in excess of the following amounts:

Full time Equivalent (FTE) Salary*	Individual Threshold Enrolled in individual coverage or family coverage but submitting receipts for one family member only for the plan year	Family Threshold Enrolled in family coverage and submitting receipts for more than one family member at any point throughout the plan year
Less than $30,000	$600	$600
$30,000 - $39,999	$800	$900
$40,000 - $49,999	$900	$1,200
$50,000 - $59,999	$900	$1,600
$60,000 - $69,999	$900	$1,900
$70,000 - $79,999	$1,250	$2,300
$80,000 - $89,999	$1,250	$2,800
$90,000 - $99,999	$1,500	$3,300
$100,000 – $109,999	$1,500	$4,000

* FTE salary is your annual salary if you work full-time or, for those who work less than full-time, the salary that would be earned working full-time at the same rate of pay. Thresholds are based on your FTE salary at the time you submit for reimbursement, not your FTE salary at the time expenses are incurred.

** If you submit receipts for more than one family member, you will be reimbursed for any expenses incurred above the family threshold. If you initially submit receipts for one family member and receive reimbursement for expenses above the individual threshold, but subsequently submit receipts for another family member, you will not receive additional reimbursements for any family member until the family threshold is met.

Reimbursement Program and Health Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA) The Reimbursement Program is separate from the Health FSA, and you need not elect to contribute to a Health FSA to take advantage of the Reimbursement Program. However, you may choose to use funds from your Health FSA to cover the required thresholds shown in the chart above. Once you have met the applicable required threshold, you should submit receipts for all additional eligible expenses to the Reimbursement Program (not to your Health FSA), and you will be reimbursed in full for those eligible expenses above the threshold. Note that you may not receive reimbursement for the same expense from both your Health FSA and the Reimbursement Program.

Qualifying Reimbursement Expenses include out-of-pocket, in-network medical expenses including deductible, coinsurance, and emergency room, office visit and prescription copayments incurred through your Harvard-sponsored medical plan. In order for an expense to be eligible, you must meet the participant eligibility criteria at the point the expense is incurred and at the point the request for reimbursement is received for processing.

When To Submit Your Reimbursement Requests Reimbursement requests not received during the plan year (January 1 – December 31) must be submitted by the end of the run-out period, which is the March 31 following the close of the plan year; or if March 31 falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the next business day. Please note, your threshold will be based on your FTE salary at the time you submit for reimbursement, not your FTE salary at the time expenses are incurred.

Supporting Documentation You must provide legible receipts from the provider for all Qualifying Expenses, including expenses that satisfy the applicable Reimbursement Program Threshold, for which you are requesting reimbursement. Receipts must clearly show:

1. Name of person receiving service
2. Nature of service or supplies
3. Name and address of care provider
4. Amount charged to patient
5. Date the service was provided

Keep copies for your records. Canceled checks and credit card receipts by themselves are not acceptable. Failing to submit Supporting Documentation will delay (or prevent) claims processing.

How to Submit Your Reimbursement Requests You may submit your reimbursement request (this form and all Supporting Documentation) to Benefit Strategies, LLC by fax, mail, or secure email. If your reimbursement request is denied, written notification will be mailed to you. In some cases, you may be allowed to resubmit expenses with proper documentation.
