

Research Job Function

Electronic Technician II

Grade 52

Summary

Performs standard noncomplex construction, assembly, testing and debugging of electronic laboratory and scientific equipment.

Typical Duties

1. Lays out, fabricates, and assembles electronic components following predetermined methods and criteria.
2. Adjusts, repairs, and modifies system, working from blueprints, sketches, drawings, and diagrams.
3. Repairs and/or replaces malfunctioning units as directed.
4. Sets up and operates standard electronic testing equipment.
5. Uses hand power tools and hand tools and simple machine power tools to fabricate electronic components.
6. Performs related job duties as required.

Typical Requirements

Education: Technical school or service training beyond high school preferred.

Skills and Experience: Two or more years of related electronics experience.

Note: This is a model job description reflecting a sample of typical duties. It is intended to suggest a general level of skill and complexity and as such is not a substitute for the local, specific descriptions for individual jobs.

Other HUCTW generic job descriptions can be found in HARVie's Union Contracts section.